32. The procedure for adding to, amending or repealing the statutes and the regulations shall be the same as that prescribed respectively for framing or making statues and regulations.

Rules.

33. (1) The Authorities and the other bodies of the University may make rules consistent with this Act, statutes and the regulations, to regulate the conduct of their business and the time and place of meetings and related matters:

Provided that the Syndicate may direct the amendment or the annulment of any rules, made by any Authority or body excepting the Senate, under this section:

Provided further that if such other Authority or body is dissatisfied with such direction it may appeal to the Senate whose decision in the matter shall be final.

(2) The Syndicate may make rules to regulate any matter relating to the affairs of the University which has not been specifically provided for by this Act, the statutes or regulations.

CHAPTER-VI
AFFILIATION OF EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS TO THE UNIVERSITY

Affiliation.

34. (1) An educational institution applying for affiliation to the University shall make an application to the University and shall satisfy it –

(i) that the educational institution is under the management of Government or of a regularly constituted governing body;

(ii) that the financial resources of the educational institution are sufficient to enable it to make due provision for its continued maintenance and efficient working;

(iii) that the strength and qualifications of the teaching and other staff, and the terms and conditions of their service, are adequate to make due provision for the courses of instruction, teaching or training to be undertaken by the educational institution;

(iv) that the educational institution has framed proper rules regarding the efficiency and discipline of its staff and other employees;

(v) that the building in which the educational institution is to be located is suitable, and that provision will be made in conformity with the statutes and the regulations for the residence of students, not residing with their parents or guardians, in the hostels established and maintained by the educational institution or in hostels or lodgings approved by it, and the supervision and physical and general welfare of students;

(vi) that provision has been made for Library and adequate library services;

(vii) that where affiliation is sought in any branch of experimental sciences, due arrangements have been made for imparting instruction in that branch of science in a properly equipped laboratory, museum and other places of practical work;

(viii) that due provision shall, so far as circumstances may permit, be made for the residence of Principal and members of the teaching staff in or near the college or the place provided for the residence of students ; and

(ix) that the affiliation of the educational institution, having regard to the provision which may have been made for students by another educational institution in its neighborhood, will not be injurious to the interests of education or discipline.

(2) The application shall further contain an undertaking that after the educational institution is affiliated any transference of, and changes in the management and in the teaching staff shall be forthwith reported to the University, and that the teaching staff shall possess such qualifications as are or may be prescribed.

(3) The procedure to be followed in disposing of an application for the affiliation of an educational institution shall be such as may be prescribed.

(4) The Syndicate may, on the recommendation of the Affiliation Committee, grant or refuse affiliation to an educational institution:

Provided that affiliation shall not be refused, unless the educational institution has been given an opportunity of making a representation against the proposed decision.

Addition of courses by affiliated educational institution.

35. Where an educational institution desires to add to the courses of instructions in respect of which it is affiliated, the procedure prescribed under sub-section (3) of section 34 shall, so far as may be, be followed.

Reports from affiliated educational institutions.

36. (1) Every educational institution affiliated to the University shall furnish such reports, returns and other information as the University may require to enable it to judge the efficiency of the educational institution.

(2) The University may call upon any educational institution affiliated to it to take, within a specified period, such action as may appear to the University to be necessary in respect of any of the matters referred to in sub-section (1) of section 34.

Withdrawal of affiliation.

37. (1) If an educational institution affiliated to the University fails at any time to fulfill any of the requirements mentioned in this Act, or if an institution has failed to observe any of the conditions of its affiliation, or its affairs are conducted in a manner which is prejudicial to the interest of education, the Syndicate may, on the recommendation of the Affiliation Committee, and after considering such representation as the educational institution may wish to make, withdraw, either in whole or in part, the rights conferred on the educational institution by affiliation or modify such rights.

(2) The procedure to be followed for the withdrawal of affiliation shall be such as may be prescribed.

Appeal against refusal or withdrawal of affiliation.

38. An appeal shall lie to the Senate against the decision of the Syndicate refusing to affiliate an institution, or withdrawing in whole or in part the rights conferred on an institution by affiliation or modifying such rights.

(3) The accounts of the University shall be audited once a year, in conformity with the statutes, the regulations, and the rules by the Auditor appointed by Government for this purpose.

(4) The annual statement of the accounts of the University signed by the Director of Finance and the Resident Auditor shall be submitted to Government within six months of closing of the financial year.

(5) The accounts of the University together with audit objections, if any, and the observations of the Auditor and the Director of Finance shall, in the prescribed manner, be presented to the Senate.

CHAPTER-VIII
GENERAL PROVISIONS

Retirement from service.

41. An officer, teacher or other employee of the University shall retire from the service of the University –

(i) on such date, after he has completed twenty five years service qualifying for pension or other retirement benefits, as the competent authority may direct:

Provided that no employee shall be retired unless he has been informed in writing of the grounds of the action proposed to be taken against him and has been given reasonable opportunity of showing cause against that action; or

(ii) where no direction is given under clause (i), on the completion of sixty years age.

Explanation: In this section "competent authority" means the appointing authority or a person duly authorized by the appointing authority in that behalf, not being a person lower in rank to the officer, teacher or other employee concerned.

Opportunity to show cause.

42. Except as otherwise provided in this Act, no officer, teacher or other employee of the University holding a permanent post shall be reduced in rank, or removed or compulsorily retired from service, unless he has been given a reasonable opportunity of showing cause against the action proposed to be taken against him.

Appeal or review.

43. (1) Where an order is passed punishing any officer (other than the Vice Chancellor), teacher or other employee of the University or altering or interpreting to his disadvantage the prescribed terms or conditions of his service, he shall, where the order is passed by the Vice Chancellor or any other officer or teacher of the University, have the right to appeal to the Syndicate against the order, and where the order is made by the Syndicate, have the right to apply to the Syndicate for review of that order.

(2) The appeal or application for review shall be submitted to the Vice Chancellor and he shall lay it before the Syndicate with his views alongwith the record of the case.

(3) No order in appeal or review shall be made unless the appellant or the applicant, as the case may be, has been given an opportunity of being heard.

Pension, Insurance, Gratuity, Provident Fund and Benevolent Fund.

44. (1) The University shall constitute for the benefit of its officers, teachers and other employees in such manner and subject to such conditions as may be prescribed, such pension, insurance, gratuity, provident fund and benevolent fund schemes as it may deem fit.

(2) Where any provident fund has been constituted under this Ordinance, the provisions of the Provident Funds Act, 1925 (Act-XIX of 1925) shall apply to such funds as if it were the Government Provident Fund.

Commencement of term of office of members of Authority.

45. (1) When a member of a newly constituted Authority is elected, appointed or nominated, his term of office, as fixed under this Act, shall commence from such date as may be prescribed.

(2) Nothing in sub-section (1) shall effect the provisions of section 43.

(3) Where a member nominated or elected to any Authority, fails to attend three meetings consecutively, he shall cease to be the member.

(4) Where a member who has accepted any assignment or for any such other reason remains absent from the University for a period of not less than six months, he shall be deemed to have resigned and vacated his seat.

Filling of casual vacancies in Authorities.

46. Any casual vacancy among the elected, appointed or nominated members of any Authority shall be filled, as soon as conveniently may be, by the person or persons or the body who elected, appointed or nominated the member whose place has become vacant and the person elected, appointed or nominated to vacancy, shall be a member of such Authority for the residue of the term for which the person whose place he fills would have been a member.

Voids in the constitution of Authorities.

47. Where there is void in the constitution of an Authority as constituted by this Act, because of the abolition of a specified office under Government or because an organization, institution or other body outside the University has been dissolved or has ceased to function or because of some other similar reason, the void shall be filled in such manner as the Chancellor may direct.

48. If a question arises whether any person is entitled to be a member of any Authority, the matter shall be referred to a committee consisting of the Vice Chancellor and the Judge of the High Court and the senior most Dean, who are the members of the Syndicate and the decision of the committee shall be final and binding. Dispute about membership of Authorities.

49. No act, proceedings, resolution or decision of any Authority shall be invalid by reason of any vacancy on the Authority doing, passing or making it or by the reason of want of qualification or invalidity in the election, appointment or nomination of any de facto member of the Authority, whether present or absent. Proceedings of Authorities not invalidated by vacancies.

50. Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, the statutes set out in the Schedule to this Act, shall be deemed to be the statues framed under section 30 and shall continue to remain in force until amended or replaced until new statutes are framed in accordance with the provisions of this Act. First Statutes.

51. No court shall have jurisdiction to entertain any proceedings, grant any injunction or make any order in relation to anything done in good faith or purported to have been done or intended to be done under this Act. Bar of Jurisdiction.

52. No suit or legal proceedings shall lie against Government, the University or any Authority, officer or employee of Government or University or any person in respect of anything which is done or purported to have been done in good faith or is intended to or has been done under this Act. Indemnity.

53. (1) Notwithstanding anything contained hereinbefore – Power to require officer, teachers or employees to serve under Government or organizations.

(a) any officer, teacher or other employee of the University shall as the Chancellor may in the public interest and in consultation with Government direct, serve in any post under Government or any other University or an educational or research institution:

Provided that in the case of a teacher, the Syndicate shall be consulted before issuing the direction;

(b) the Chancellor may, in the public interest, and in consultation with Government direct, any post in the University to be filled by appointing any employee of Government or any other University or an educational or research institution:

Provided that in the case of a teacher, the Selection Board shall be consulted before filling in the post.

(2) Where any appointment or transfer has been made under this section, the terms and conditions of service of the appointee or transferee shall not be less favourable than those admissible to him immediately before such appointment or transfer and he shall be entitled to all benefits of his past service.
