of wages for
workers.

meetings, and other expenses, including expenses for the services of experts and advisers obtained by the Board, shall be such as may be prescribed.

4. (1) The Board shall, upon a reference made to it by Government, recommend to Government, after such enquiry as the Board may deem fit, the minimum rates of wages for adult, skilled and unskilled workers and juvenile and adolescent workers employed in industrial establishments or commercial establishments or both.

(2) In its recommendations under sub-section (1), the Board shall indicate, whether the minimum rates of wages should be adopted uniformly throughout the Province or with such local variations and for such localities as specified therein.

Recommendation of minimum rates
of wages for
workers with respect to

5. (1) Where in respect of any particular industry for which no adequate machinery exists for effective regulation of wages, Government is of the opinion that, having regard to the wages of the workers employed in the undertakings engaged in such industry, it is expedient to fix the minimum rates of wages of such workers, it may direct the Board to recommend, after such enquiry as the Board may deem fit, the minimum rates of wages either for all such workers or for such of them as are specified in the direction.

(2) In pursuance of a direction under sub-section (1), the Board may recommend minimum rates of wages for all classes of workers, including skilled and unskilled, in any grade and in such recommendation, may specify -

(a) the minimum rates of wages for -

- (i) time work;
- (ii) piece work;
- (iii) overtime work; and
- (iv) work on the weekly day of rest and for paid holidays;

(b) the minimum time rates for workers employed on piece work so as to guarantee minimum wages on a time basis for such workers.

(3) The time rates recommended by the Board may be on hourly, daily, weekly or monthly basis.

(4) The rates recommended under this section for overtime work and work on paid holidays shall not be less than the minimum rates fixed for such work under any other law for the time being in force.

Power to declare minimum rates of wages.

6. (1) Upon receipt of a recommendation of the Board under section 4 or section 5, Government may -

- (a) by notification in the official Gazette, declare that the minimum rates of wages recommended by the Board for the various workers shall, subject to such exceptions as may be specified in the notification, be the minimum rates of wages, for such workers; or

7. (1) The Board shall review its recommendations, if any change in the economic conditions and cost of living and other relevant factors so demand, and recommend to Government any amendment, modification or revision of the minimum rates of wages declared under section 6.

Periodical review of minimum rates of wages.

(2) Review and recommendation under this section shall be deemed to be an enquiry and recommendation under section 4 or, as the case may be under section 5, and, so far as may be, the provisions of this Act shall, to such review and recommendation, apply accordingly.

8. (1) Government may by notification in the official gazette, adopt minimum rates of wages, for such workers or class of workers, or establishments or class of establishments, as per conditions, as may be specified in the notification.

Powers of Government to adopt minimum rates of wages for unskilled workers, notify Cost of Living Allowance, Dearness Allowance and Adhoc Relief.

(2) Government may by notification in the official gazette, allow cost of living allowance to such workers or class of workers or establishments or class of establishments, as per conditions, as may be specified in the notification.

(3) Government may by notification in the official gazette, allow dearness allowance to such workers or class of workers or establishments or class of establishments, as per conditions, as may be specified in the notification.

9. (1) Subject only to such deductions as may be authorized under this Act or under any other law for the time being in force, no employer shall pay any worker wages at a rate lower than the rate declared under this Act to be the minimum rates of wages for such worker.

Prohibition to pay wages at a rate below the minimum rate of wages.

(2) Nothing in sub-section (1) shall be deemed -

- (a) to require or authorize an employer to reduce the rates of wages of any worker; or

(b) to affect, in any way, the right of a worker to continue to receive wages at a rate higher than the minimum rate declared under this Act if, under any agreement, contract or award, or as a customary differential, or otherwise, he is entitled to receive wages at such higher rate, or to continue to enjoy such amenities and other advantages as are customary for such worker to enjoy; or

(c) to affect the provisions of the Payment of Wages Act, 1936 (Act No. IV of 1936).

(3) Any employer who contravenes the provisions of this section shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or with fine which may extend to fifty thousand rupees but not less than twenty thousand rupees or with both, in addition to payment of sum not less than the difference in wages actually paid to the worker and the amount which would have been paid to him had there been no such contravention.

Appointment of Authority.

10. (1) Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, appoint any person to be Authority for any area, specified in the notification, to hear and decide all claims arising out of non-payment, or delay in the payment of wages to workers in that area whose minimum rates of wages have been declared under the provisions of this Act.

(2) Where contrary to the provisions of this Act, wages of any worker have been withheld or delayed, such worker himself or through any other person authorized by him in this behalf, may, within six months from the day on which such payment was to be made, apply to the Authority appointed under subsection (1) having jurisdiction, for an order directing the payment to him of such wages:

Provided that any such application may be admitted after the said period of six months but not later than one year from the date on which the payment was to be made, if the applicant satisfies the Authority that he had sufficient cause for not making the application within such period.

(3) When any application under sub-section (2) is entertained, the Authority shall hear the applicant and the employer or other person responsible for the payment of wages alleged to have been withheld or delayed or give them an opportunity of being heard and after such further inquiry, if any, as may be necessary may, without prejudice to any other penalty to which such employer or other person may be liable under section 9 or any other law for the time being in force direct the employer or such other person to make payment to the applicant of the wages which have been withheld or delayed, together, with such penalty, not exceeding ten times the wages withheld or delayed:

entitled to receive wages at such higher rate, or to continue to enjoy such amenities and other advantages as are customary for such worker to enjoy; or

(c) to affect the provisions of the Payment of Wages Act, 1936 (Act No.IV of 1936).

(3) Any employer who contravenes the provisions of this section shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months or with fine which may extend to fifty thousand rupees but not less than twenty thousand rupees or with both, in addition to payment of sum not less than the difference in wages actually paid to the worker and the amount which would have been paid to him had there been no such contravention.

10. (1) Government may, by notification in the official Gazette, appoint any person to be Authority for any area, specified in the notification, to hear and decide all claims arising out of non-payment, or delay in the payment of wages to workers in that area whose minimum rates of wages have been declared under the provisions of this Act.

Appointment of Authority.

(2) Where contrary to the provisions of this Act, wages of any worker have been withheld or delayed, such worker himself or through any other person authorized by him in this behalf, may, within six months from the day on which such payment was to be made, apply to the Authority appointed under subsection (1) having jurisdiction, for an order directing the payment to him of such wages:

Provided that any such application may be admitted after the said period of six months but not later than one year from the date on which the payment was to be made, if the applicant satisfies the Authority that he had sufficient cause for not making the application within such period.

(3) When any application under sub-section (2) is entertained, the Authority shall hear the applicant and the employer or other person responsible for the payment of wages alleged to have been withheld or delayed or give them an opportunity of being heard and after such further inquiry, if any, as may be necessary may, without prejudice to any other penalty to which such employer or other person may be liable under section 9 or any other law for the time being in force direct the employer or such other person to make payment to the applicant of the wages which have been withheld or delayed, together, with such penalty, not exceeding ten times the wages withheld or delayed:

Provided that no direction for the payment of a penalty shall be made in the case of delayed wages, if the Authority is satisfied that the delay was due to -

- (a) a bona fide error or bona fide dispute as to the amount payable to the employee; or
- (b) the occurrence of any emergency or the existence of such exceptional circumstances that the person responsible for the payment of the wages was unable to make prompt payment; and
- (c) the fault of the worker.

(4) If the Authority hearing any application under this section is satisfied that no amount to be paid as wages is due from the employer or other person responsible for the payment of wages to the applicant, it shall reject the application; and if the application, in the opinion of the Authority, is malicious or vexatious, the Authority when rejecting it, may direct the applicant to pay a penalty not exceeding fifty rupees to the employer or other person responsible for the payment of wages.

(5) Any amount directed to be paid under this section may be recovered -

- (a) if the Authority is a Magistrate, by the Authority, as if it were a fine imposed by him as a Magistrate; and
- (b) if that Authority is not a Magistrate, by any Magistrate to whom the Authority makes application in this behalf, as if it were a fine imposed by such Magistrate.

Appeal.

11. (1) An appeal against a direction made or order passed under sub-section (3) or sub-section (4) of section 10 may be preferred to the Labour Court within thirty days of the date on which the direction was made or order was passed -

- (a) by the employer or other person responsible for the payment of wages, if the amount directed to be paid as wages or as wages and penalty exceeds one hundred rupees;
- (b) by a worker, if the total amount of wages claimed to have been withheld from him exceeds rupees fifty; or
- (c) by the person directed under sub-section (4) to pay a penalty:

Provided that no appeal under this clause shall lie unless the memorandum of appeal is accompanied by a certificate of the Authority to the effect that the appellants has deposited with the Authority the amount payable under the direction appealed against; or

(2) If there is no appeal, the direction or order of the Authority made under sub-section (3) or sub-section (4) and where there is an appeal as provided in sub-section (6), the decision in appeal, shall be final and shall not in any manner be questioned by any person in any court or before any authority.

(3) An Authority appointed under sub-section (1) shall, for the purposes of determining any matter referred to in sub-section (3) or sub-section (4) of section 10—

- (a) have all the powers of a Civil Court under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (V of 1908), for the purposes of enforcing the attendance of witnesses, compelling the production of documents, and the taking of evidence; and

- (c) record statements of persons connected with the working of such establishment:

Provided that no one shall be required under this clause to answer any question tending to incriminate himself.

(3) Any employer, who contravenes the provisions of sub-section (1), and any person who willfully obstructs anyone in the exercise of any power under sub-section (2), or fails to produce on demand there under any book, register or other documents, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to twenty thousand rupees.

Powers of the Board to collect evidence.

13. The Board shall, while holding an enquiry under this Act or the rules, be deemed to be Civil Court and shall have the same powers as are vested in such Courts under the Code of Civil Procedure, 1908 (Act V of 1908), in respect of the following matters, namely:-

- (a) enforcing the attendance of any person and examining him on oath;
- (b) compelling the production of documents and material objects; and
- (c) issuing commissions for the examination of witnesses.

Inspector.

14. An Inspector notified under the Factories Act, 1934 or Shops and Establishments Act, 1968 shall also be an Inspector for the purpose of this Act; provided that a Shop inspector shall visit only those shops and establishments where the number of workers are nine or less.

Penalty for obstructing Inspectors.

15. (1) Whoever willfully obstructs an Inspector in the exercise of any powers under this Act and the rules made there under, or fails to produce on demand by an Inspector any register or other document in his custody, or conceals or prevents any worker in an establishment from appearing before or being examined by an Inspector, shall be punishable with imprisonment for a term which may extend to one month or with a fine which may extend to fifty thousand rupees but shall not be less than ten thousand rupees or with both.

(2) In case of subsequent offence, after having been convicted previously, shall be punishable with simple imprisonment for a term which may extend to six months but shall not be less than one month or with a fine of rupees one thousand per day reckoned from the date of first conviction.

(3) Whosoever contravenes any other section of this Act or the rules, for which a specific penalty has not been prescribed, shall be punishable with a fine which may extend to twenty thousand rupees but shall not be less than five thousand rupees and in case of subsequent offence, after having been convicted previously, shall be punishable with fine which may extend to fifty thousand rupees but shall not be less than ten thousand rupees.
