21. Every employee shall be liable to serve anywhere in connection with the affairs of the Organization:

Liability of the employee to serve
any where.

Provided that, where an employee is recruited to serve in a post outside his service or cadre, his terms and conditions of service as to his pay shall not be less favourable than those to which he would have been entitled if he had not been so required to serve.

22. (1) Unless his lien is suspended, an employee holding substantively a permanent post shall retain a lien on that post---

Lien.

(a) while performing the duties of that post;

(b) while on deputation, or holding a temporary post, or officiating in another post;

THE SIND GOVERNMENT GAZETTE
GAZETTED ON SATURDAY MARCH, 11, 1989.

- (c) during joining time on transfer to another post; unless he is transferred substantively to a post on lower pay, in which case his lien shall stand transferred to the new post from the date on which he is relieved of his duties in the old post;
- (d) while on leave; and
- (e) while under suspension.

(2) The competent authority shall suspend the lien of an employee on a permanent post which he holds substantively if he is appointed in a substantive capacity--

- (i) to a tenure post; or
- (ii) to a permanent post outside the cadre on which he is borne; or
- (iii) provisionally, to a post on which another employee would hold lien his lien not been suspended.

(3) The competent authority may, at its option, suspend the lien of an employee on a permanent post which he holds substantively and where he is deputed out of the Organization, or transferred whether in a substantive or officiating capacity, to a post in another cadre, and if there is reason to believe that he will remain absent from the post on which he holds a lien, for a period of not less than three years.

(4) Notwithstanding anything any contained in sub-rules (2) and (3) an employee's lien on a tenure post may, in no circumstances, be substantively to another permanent post, his lien on the tenure post shall be terminated.

(5) If any employee's lien on a post is suspended under sub-rule (2) or sub-rule 93) the post may be filled substantively and the employee appointed to hold it substantively shall acquire a lien on it; provided that the arrangements shall be revised as soon as the suspended lien of the previous employee revives.

(6) An employee's lien which has been suspended under sub-rule (2) shall revive as soon as he ceases to hold a lien on a post of the nature specified on that sub-rule.

(7) An employee's lien which has been suspended under sub-rule (3) shall revive as soon as he ceases to be on deputation or to hold a post in another cadre; provided that a suspended lien shall not revive if the employee takes leave and if there is reason to believe that he will on return from leave, continue to be on deputation or to hold a post in another cadre and the total period of absence on duty will not fall short of three years or that he will hold substantively a post of the nature specified in sub-rule (2).

THE SIND GOVERNMENT GAZETTE
GAZETTED ON SATURDAY MARCH, 11, 1989.

(8) Subject to the provisions of rule 23, the competent authority may transfer the lien to an employee who is not performing the duties of the post to which the lien relates, to another post in the same cadre even if that lien has been suspended.

(9) An employee's lien on a post may in no circumstances be terminated even with his consent, if the result will be to leave him without a lien or a suspended lien upon a permanent post.

(10) In the case of an employee whose lien on a permanent post has been suspended on his appointment in a substantive capacity to a post outside the cadre on which he is borne, the suspended lien may not, except on the written request of the employee concerned, be terminated while the employee remains in the service of the Organization.

(11) Two or more employee shall not be appointed substantively to the same permanent post at the same time.

(12) An employee shall not be appointed substantively, except as a temporary measure, to two or more permanent posts at the same lien.

23. (1) An employee may be transferred from a post to another equivalent post:

Transfer.

Provided that—

(a) except on account of line efficiency or misbehaviour or on his written request, an employee shall not be transferred substantively to, or, appointed, to officiate in, a post carrying less pay than to the pay of the permanent post on which he hold a lien or would hold a lien had his lien not been suspended under sub-rule (2) of rule 22;

THE SIND GOVERNMENT GAZETTE
GAZETTED ON SATURDAY MARCH, 11, 1989.

(b) nothing contained in clause (a) or any other provision of these rules shall operate to prevent the re-transfer of an employ to the position which he would hold a lien, had it not been suspended in accordance with the provision of sub-rule (2) or sub-rule (3) of rule 22.

24. (1) A record of service and a confidential annual report about the work of each employee shall be maintained or as the case may be, recorded in the form and manner specified by the Organization. Record of service and confidential report.
- (2) An employee shall not have access to his confidential reports; provided that such employee shall be informed of adverse remarks, if any, relating to remedial effect in order to give him an opportunity to explain his position or to correct himself.
- (3) A service book or record containing event relating to the service in the Authority shall be maintained in respect of all employees in such form as may be prescribed by the Organization.
- (4) The identification marks of the employee shall be given in the service book/record and a passport size photograph and finger prints of both hands of the employee shall be affixed to the service book/record.
- (5) All entries in the service book/record shall be initiated by the Head of the office concerned.
25. No person convicted for an offence involving moral turpitude shall be appointed as employee. Appointment of convicted person.
26. (1) An employee again whom an investigation for a cognizable offence is pending or who is challenged in a Court, of Law on a criminal charge or is in Police Custody may be placed under suspension if the appointing authority considers it necessary. Placement under Suspension.
- (2) When an employee is placed under suspension, the appointing authority shall, on the expiry of three months from the date of suspension, place the matter before the next higher authority regarding the advisability of continuing the person under suspension, and the authority may, if it so deems fit, fix such further period of suspension as it may think necessary and review the case on the expiry of the period so fixed.

THE SIND GOVERNMENT GAZETTE
GAZETTED ON SATURDAY MARCH, 11, 1989.

(3) In the case of conviction of an employee he shall be placed under suspension till the question of his further retention in service is finally decided in accordance with these rules.

(4) If an employee under suspension is acquitted honorably, he shall be reinstated and the period of suspension shall be treated as on duty, and he may in the discretion of the appointing authority be given promotion retrospectively in a higher post from the date he would otherwise have been promoted to such post but for his suspension but he shall not be entitled to the pay of the higher post retrospectively in which he has not actually worked.

Explanation:- When a charge against the accused is dismissed without any suggestion by the Court that the conduct of the accused has been suspicious or any indication that it is merely giving the accused benefit of doubt, the acquittal will be treated as honorable acquittal.

(5) If an employee is exonerated in departmental enquiry or acquittal or discharged in a trial in a Court of law either on purely technical ground or on being given benefit of doubt, or otherwise than honorably acquitted on any other ground, this absence on account of suspension, will not be treated as period spent on duty unless the appointing authority, for reasons to be recorded in writing otherwise directs.

27. An employee appointed to a higher post on adhoc or on temporary or officiating basis shall be liable to reversion to his lower post or basic pay scale without notice. Revision to a lower post.

28. (1) The services of one employee may be terminated without notice- Termination.

(i) during the initial or extended period of his probation.

Provided that where the employee is appointed by promotion or, as the case may be, is transferred from one cadre, or post to an other post or cadre, his service shall not be so terminated so long as he holds lien against his former post in such cadre, or but he shall be reverted to his former cadre or post, as the case may be;

(ii) On the expiry of the initial or extended period of his probation/employment; or

THE SIND GOVERNMENT GAZETTE
GAZETTED ON SATURDAY MARCH, 11, 1989.

- (iii) If the appointment is made adhoc terminable on the appointment of a person on the recommendation of the selection authority on the appointment of such person.

(2) Where on the abolition of a post or reduction in the number of posts in the cadre, the services of an employee are required to be terminated, the person whose services are terminated shall ordinarily be the one who is the most junior in such cadre or post.

(3) Notwithstanding the provisions of sub-rule (1) but subject to the provisions of sub-rule (2) the service of an employee in temporary employment or appointed adhoc shall be liable to termination on fourteen day's notice or pay in lieu thereof.

29. (1) A permanent employee shall not resign from his post without giving the appointing authority one month's previous notice in writing failing which he shall be liable to pay to the Organization a sum equal to his substantive pay for one months. Resignation.

(2) The right to recover pay in lieu of notice may be revised by the appointing authority.

30. Unless the competent authority, in view of any special circumstances of the case, otherwise determines, an employee shall cease to be in the employment after five years absence from duty, elsewhere than on deputation. Absent from duty.

31. (1) The competent authority may require an employee to appear before the Medical Officer for medical examination if, in its opinion the employee is suffering from a disease which renders him unfit for the proper and efficient discharge of his duties or from a disease which is communicable and is likely to endanger the health of other employee. Employee being unfit for service.

(2) If the Medical Officer certifies, after examining the employee, that the employee requires a period of absence from duty for the purpose of rest and treatment and that there is reasonable prospect of his recovery, the competent authority may grant him leave, including extra-ordinary leave, for such period as the Medical Officer recommends under the relevant rules as if the employee had himself applied for the leave.

(3) If the Medical Officer after examining the employee, certifies that employee is permanently incapacitated for service,

THE SIND GOVERNMENT GAZETTE
GAZETTED ON SATURDAY MARCH, 11, 1989.

the finding of the Medical Officer shall be communicated to the employee immediately.

(4) The employee may, within seven days of the receipt by him of the official intimation of the findings of the Medical Officer, apply to the competent authority for a review of his case by a medical Board and the application shall be accompanied by a fee determined by the Organization.

(5) The competent authority shall then arrange for the convening of a reviewing medical Board, the personnel of which shall not include the Medical Officer who issued the certificate in the first instance and if the reviewing medical Board certifies that the employee is permanently incapacitated for further service or the employee fails to apply for review the competent authority may require him to retire from service as may grant him such an amount as may be admissible to him under rules.

(6) In case the reviewing Medical Board holds that the employee is fit for service he shall be reinstated forthwith and the period of his absence will be treated as duty and the fees deposited by him for getting his case reviewed by medical board will be refunded to him.

(7) If, the reviewing medical Board certifies that the employee is not fit but there is a reasonable prospect of his recovery the case shall be regulated under the provisions of sub-rule (2) and the fees deposited by him for getting his case reviewed shall be refunded.

32. Service of an employee may cease—

Termination of service.

- (i) by discharge at any stage of an probationary period due to unsatisfactory performance;
- (ii) by termination of service on account of his failure in the prescribe departmental examination for the post, unless exempted therefrom;
- (iii) by resignation subject to the following:-
  - (a) the resignation will be effected on its acceptance by the competent authority, and in the case of temporary employee on expiry of fourteen days pay in lieu thereof from either side;

THE SIND GOVERNMENT GAZETTE
GAZETTED ON SATURDAY MARCH, 11, 1989.

(b) if a permanent employee leaves service before acceptance of his resignation and without handing over proper charge of his office, he shall be liable to dismissal from service;

(c) resignation once accepted shall not be withdrawn unless permitted by the competent authority in exceptional circumstances for reasons to be recorded;

(iv) by retirement on reaching the age of superannuation;

(v) by compulsory retirement due to permanent disability which in the opinion of the medical Officer renders him unfit for services;

(vi) by termination of service or abolition of post;

(vii) by retrenchment, the junior most employee in a cadre being retrenched first;

(viii) by removal, dismissal or compulsory retirement from service as a penalty.

33. (1) Where a right to prefer an appeal or review in respect of any order relating to the terms and conditions of his service is provided to an employee under any rules applicable to him, such appeal or application shall, except as may be otherwise prescribed, be made within thirty days of the date of such order. Appeal.

(2) Where no provision for appeal or review exists under the rules in respect of any order or class or orders, any employee aggrieved by any such order may, within thirty days of the communication to him such order, make a representation against it to the authority next above the authority which made the order:

Provided that no representation shall lie on matters relating to the determination of fitness or a person to hold a particular post or to be promoted to a higher post or grade.

34. The Organization may engage any person as advisor, technical expert while time, part time, on contract basis or otherwise for special job on payment of such remuneration or fees as deemed fit looking to the nature and quantum of work. Appointment on contract basis.

35. All rules relating to pension, commutation of pension, travelling allowances, advances for construction or purchase of house and purchase of conveyance applicable to the civil Application of Government rules.

THE SIND GOVERNMENT GAZETTE
GAZETTED ON SATURDAY MARCH, 11, 1989.

servants, as amended from time to time, shall mutatis mutandis apply to the employees.

36. In all matters not provided for in these rules, or any other rules, the rules applicable to the civil servants shall mutatis mutandis apply to the employees: Provision for matters not provided.

Provided that no financial benefits under such rules shall be admissible to an employee unless specifically sanctioned by the Organization.

37. The Organization may with the prior approval of Government for reasons to be recorded in writing relax any provision of these rules in an individual case in such manner as may appear to it to be just and equitable, and where it is satisfied that the strict application of the rules would cause undue hardship to the individual concerned: Relaxation of rules.

Provided that no such relaxation shall be made so as to deal with the case of an employee in any manner less favourable to him than that provided in these rules.
