⁵ Infra. ibid., s. 7, Sch. III.

(2) The auditor may, in any requisition or invitation made under sub-section (1), fix a reasonable period, * * * within which the said requisition or invitation shall be complied with.

(3) The auditor shall give to the local authority not less than ²[one] weeks' notice in writing of the date on which he proposes to commence the audit.

³[Provided that where for any special reasons it is not practicable to give one week's notice, the notice may be of such shorter period as the auditor may think fit :

Provided further that no such notice shall be required in the case of a special audit made under the authority of the ⁴[Revenue Commissioner] or the Examiner.]

7. (1) Any person who wilfully neglects or refuses to comply with any requisition lawfully made upon him under clause (a) or clause (b) of sub-section (1) of section 6 shall be liable, on conviction before a Magistrate, to a fine which may extend to one hundred rupees :

Provided that no proceedings under this section shall be instituted except on the written sanction of the ⁴[Revenue Commissioner] :

Provided further that before giving such sanction the ⁴[Revenue Commissioner] shall call upon the person against whom the proceedings are to be instituted to show cause why the sanction should not be given.

(2) No court inferior to that of a Magistrate of the first class shall try any offence against this Act.

8. Within ⁵[three] months after the completion of the audit, the Examiner shall prepare a report on the accounts audited and examined and shall send such report to the local authority concerned and copies thereof to such officers and bodies as ⁶[the Provincial Government] may direct.

9. The Examiner shall include in his report a statement of—

(a) every payment which appears to him to be contrary to law, event of the ¹[President, Chairman or Administrator] failing to give such intimation or explanation, on the expiry of the period of three months mentioned in the said sub-section and shall forward a copy of such report to the ²[President, Chairman or Administrator], as the case may be, of the local authority. If the Examiner holds that any defects or irregularities have not been removed or remedied he shall state in the report whether, in his opinion, the defects or irregularities can be regularised and if so, by what method; and if they do not admit of being regularised, whether they can be condoned and, if so, by what authority. He shall also state whether the amounts to which the defects or irregularities relate should, in his opinion, be surcharged or charged:

Provided that in the case of reports on the accounts * * * * of such local authorities as are specially notified by ³[the Provincial Government] in this behalf the report referred to in this sub-section shall be submitted by the Examiner to such officer, being the head of a department, as ⁴[the Provincial Government] may direct. Such officer shall take such action as may be necessary regarding any defects or irregularities falling under clause (c) of sub-section (2) which may have been brought to notice in the report. If he is of the opinion that the amounts to which any such defects or irregularities relate should be surcharged or charged, he shall forward the report of the ⁴[Revenue Commissioner] together with his recommendation in that behalf.

(4) The local authority concerned shall publish in its next administration report, such portions of the report under section 8 as deal with defects and irregularities falling under clause (c) of sub-section (2), together with the explanation thereof, if any, given under sub-section (1) and the final report of the Examiner thereon under sub-section (3). Such report of defects and irregularities, explanation and final report shall be open to the inspection of the public at the office of the local authority for a period of one month from the date of their receipt and shall also be published in the vernacular of the district in any newspaper circulating in the district selected by the local authority within one month of the receipt by it of the copy of the report sent to the ⁴[Revenue Commissioner] under sub-section (3).

¹ Subs. by the Sind Laws (Adaptation, Revision, Repeal and Declaration) Ordinance, 1955 (Sind 5 of 1955), s. 7, Sch. III, for "President and Chairman".

⁴ Subs. by the Sind Laws (Adaptation, Revision, Repeal and Declaration) Ordinance, 1955 (Sind 3 of 1955), s. 13, for "Commissioner".

(5) If the ¹[President, Chairman or Administrator] of a local authority fails to give the intimation or explanation referred to in sub-section (x) within the period therein mentioned the ²[Revenue Commissioner] may, at the instance of the Examiner, publish in the vernacular of the district the whole of the Examiner's report under section 8, together with any observations which the ³[Revenue Commissioner] may make thereon, in any newspaper circulating in the district which the ⁴[Revenue Commissioner] may select and the cost of such publication shall be paid by ⁵[the local authority].

(6) Nothing in this section or in section 9 shall preclude the Examiner at any time from bringing to the notice of the ⁶[Revenue Commissioner], for such action as the ⁷[Revenue Commissioner] may consider necessary, any ⁸[matter] which appears to the Examiner to support a presumption of criminal misappropriation or fraud ⁹[or which in his opinion requires special attention or immediate investigation].

11. (x) ¹⁰[The Revenue Commissioner] may, after considering the recommendation of the Examiner or of any head of a department under the proviso to sub-section (3) of section 10, as the case may be, and after taking the explanation of the person concerned, or making such further inquiry, as he may consider necessary, disallow any item which appears to him to be contrary to law and surcharge the same on the person making, or authorizing the making of, the illegal payment; and may charge against any person responsible therefor the amount of any deficiency or loss caused by the gross negligence or misconduct of that person, or, any sum received which ought to have been, but is not brought into account by that person and shall, in every such case, certify the amount due from such person :

74 * * * * *

(2) ¹¹[The Revenue Commissioner] shall state in writing the reasons for his decision in respect of every surcharge or charge and shall send by registered post a copy thereof to the person against whom it is made.

(3) If a person to whom a copy of the ¹²[Revenue Commissioner's] decision is sent under sub-section (2) refuses to take delivery thereof he shall be deemed to have duly received it on the day on which it was refused by him.
